

For Groups

- I offer a community arts program with fun, accessible multi-medium art projects for elders with (or without) dementia.
- I also offer an instructional program for activity staff on proper teaching techniques, communication skills, generating ideas and problem solving group flow.

“Her personality, her gentleness, her guidance, her projects, her art ideas, everything she does is incredible!”

Nina K., colleague at Aegis Living

For Individuals

- I offer a one-on-one creative arts program for seniors with dementia and their care partners.
- I’m also available for consultation to provide facilitation techniques for care partners to work with their loved ones on their own.

“One of my Mom's art teacher's background is in fine art and the other is in recreation therapy. I see a combination of their good works and techniques in the work Kathryn does.”

Kathy D., daughter of senior art client
